Supplemental Agreement No. 1

Gentlemen:

Subject Agreement, in triplicate, is enclosed. You will note that all three copies of the Agreement have been signed by the Contracting Officer; therefore, upon your concurrence and execution of all three copies of the document, one executed copy may be retained for your files and the original and one copy returned to this office within fourteen (14) days from the date of this letter. Since copies of this Agreement are being distributed within this office, it is important that no erasures or alterations of any kind be made without communication with this office.

With regard to deletion of Article 6 of the General Provisions, please note that it is the practice of this Agency to accept the overhead rates negotiated by the cognizant Audit Office.

The provision for a cost ceiling is intended only to indicate that the Contractor may not, by expending funds on a shared basis, obligate the Government beyond the ceiling cost. It is not intended as a price ceiling.

In the event any information is needed prior to your execution of the document, or if matters arise at a later date affecting contract price(s), you may contact [redacted] On contructual administration matters such as billings, deliveries, consignee or other matters of an administrative nature not involving contract price(s), your contact [redacted] 25X1 25X1
